

Northern Virginia Section The National Council of Negro Women, Inc

P.O. Box 119
Merrifield, VA 22116

ANNOUNCEMENT

We cordially invite you to attend our 40th Annual Fashion Show and Luncheon taking place on Sunday, September 17, 2017. The event location is the Sheraton Tysons Corner, Virginia. The expected attendance is 600 or more. As a sponsor, you will be offered premium seating, acknowledgment at the luncheon and a prominent listing in the program book.

The National Council of Negro Women, Inc. (NCNW) is a nonprofit membership organization founded in 1935 by Mary McLeod Bethune, a child of slave parents, distinguished educator and government consultant. With a mission to lead, develop and advocate for women of African descent as they support their families and communities, NCNW addresses issues of human welfare and rights through public education, community service and advocacy. NCNW is a voice for all ages, and for all economic levels. It is the voice for families. NCNW reaches nearly 4 million women through 39 national affiliate organizations and more than 240 sections.

In addition to attending this spectacular event, we further invite you to demonstrate your support by becoming a Patron and sending us a monetary donation equal to one of the patronage categories indicated below. In sincere appreciation for each gracious donation, we will place the name of each Sponsor and Patron in the program book.

Support for the Northern Virginia Section of NCNW's 40th Annual Fashion Show Luncheon allows the Section to continue its great work that touches all communities of Northern Virginia and the USA. We are asking for your generous support as a sponsor.

We ask that you please complete the response form and return it to Ms. Virgie Simmons-Jones at v1blessed@aol.com. If you have questions please contact her by telephone at 703-481-6848. We hope we can count on you to support this important community effort.
